DOT&PF, partners launch Click It Or Ticket enforcement campaign

(WASILLA, Alaska) – Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities (DOT&PF) Commissioner of Leo von Scheben joined top state department officials from the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs and the Department of Public Safety, the Wasilla Police Department, Lt. Governor Sean Parnell and James F. Ports Jr., Deputy Administrator of the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration (NHTSA) Monday at the Museum of Alaska Transportation and Industry to kick off this year's Click It Or Ticket seat belt use enforcement campaign. Commissioner von Scheben offered the gathered audience a personal testimonial about an aviation crash he was involved in, one he said could have claimed his life if not for the use of a seat belt.
